MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

Deputy Director for Operations
Deputy Director for Intelligence

Deputy Director for Science and Technology

FROM:

Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT:

Letter to the President dated 10 January 1984

At breakfast this morning the President told me he had read the three year report last night. He said it was damn good and I should congratulate all of you for it.

I would like your advice on further use and help on sanitizing it for that purpose.

First, I would like you to delete or modify those portions in which you are interested for my use in talking in the bubble sometime over the next weeks. Then we will consider what use might be made on the Hill. It would seem to me that it brings together in one place so much information that without a lot of sanitization you wouldn't want to leave it up there. I thought of letting the Chairman and Vice Chairman of the two committees read it while we have somebody hover over them. I am not sure how much that would be worth to us in light of the working and reading habits of some of the gentlemen concerned.

So, I would like your recommendation on sanitization and your thoughts on how to use.

William J. Casey
